

29th September 2014

Dear Parents

Admissions to St Martin's 2015

Many thanks for your application for admission to St Martin's in September 2013. This year, as last, we have had significantly more applications than the 30 places we have available, so places will be allocated strictly according to our Admissions Policy.

As you are aware from the Admissions Policy, there are a series of categories which ranks the order of admission. In order that we can categorise your child's admission correctly, we need the attached sheet to be completed and returned by Friday 28th February 2015. If it is returned after this date, it could affect your child's application.

However, if you no longer wish to pursue your child's admission application, could you please let school know as soon as possible in order that the place can be offered to another child?

Yours sincerely

Mr P D Hallman
Headteacher
